

ANCHORAGE GLACIER PILOTS SUMMER PARENT PROGRAM

THE GLACIER PILOTS ARE LOOKING FOR HOST FAMILIES

WHAT IS EXPECTED OF A HOST FAMILY?

- Be available to host players from the first week of June through the first week of August.
- Provide a room with a bed for each player (players can share a room with another player, but need to have their own bed).
- Provide access to a bathroom.
- Provide players with meals/food.
- Provide access to your laundry equipment (players do their own laundry).
- Set house rules and discuss the use of house facilities.

WHAT IS EXPECTED OF THE PLAYERS?

- Positive role modeling in the community and within the host family's home.
- Follow and be respectful of all family/household rules
- Clean up after themselves
- Do their own laundry
- Adhere to all NCAA guidelines and state laws

WHAT ARE THE BENEFITS OF BEING A HOST FAMILY?

- Season passes to all Pilot home games
- Monthly gift cards provided for groceries
- Tax advantages
- Lifelong friendship with high level collegiate baseball players and potential major leaguers
